4.

Who dreams at night of protoplasm,
And wakes up in a dreadful spasm,
And thinks, poor chap! he really has'em?
The thrice analytical, tries to be critical,
Deep biological plug.
Who, when he's passed his last exam.
Will spend the time between each Psalm,
In teaching angels how to cram?
The knowledge-adoring, fellow-man-boring,
Books-minus-common-sense plug.

5.

Who in the class-room sets the pace,
And brings his fellows to disgrace,
And tries to win the grinder's race?
The all-too industrious, would be illustrious,
Over much studying plug.
Who never College sports attends,
Nor aid to College movements lends,
But selfish seeks his private ends?
The much-too laborious, sadly inglorious,
Egotistical plug.
